Antioch's library to fete 60, fire department salutes 75

by GLORIA DAVIS

Antioch always holds a lot of special events in the summertime, starting with the Memorial Day Parade, Fourth of July, the RV Show, the Arts and Crafts Fair, Maxwell St. Days, the Lions Club Annual Farmers' Picnic and Rescue Squad Auction, ending with the Rotary Pork Chop Barbeque and Auction early in the fall.

This year there will be two special celebrations, the 60th birthday celebration for the Antioch Twp. Library and the 75th anniversary of the Antioch Twp. Fire Dept.

The library, which started out as a community library 60 years ago and then became a township library, will hold an open house from 1-3 p.m., at the library, on Saturday, June 12. Past trustees of the library board will be honored and librarians will greet guests and answer any questions they have on the particular sections of the library. Refreshments will be served.

The fire department's celebration will be going on all summer, starting with the Lake County Firemen's Assn. Convention which will be hosted by the Antioch Fire Dept., from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, June 4, at Williams Park.

On Saturday, June 25, the annual Firemen's Dance will take place starting at 7 p.m. at the Fire Safety Bldg. on Orchard St.

The official 75th anniversary party will be held at Williams Park on Saturday, Aug. 13, following a parade that is set to start at 11 a.m.

Time to remember

With flowers and a tiny flag in hand, a mother and her son attend to preparations for Memorial Day observance Monday, May 30. Both veterans and civic organizations will be conducting public ceremonies to pay tribute to our nation's war dead while others will pay respects to loved ones. See details elsewhere this issue. Most places of business and governmental offices will be closed Monday as will the newspaper office. Regular advertising and news deadlines will not be affected by the holiday.—Photo by Mike Jordan.

VFW to march in parade

The Antioch VFW will have its Memorial Day Parade on Monday, May 30.

Anyone who would like to march in the parade can come to the starting point at Antioch High School by 9:15 a.m. to assemble in the lineup.

The parade kicks off at 10 a.m. All groups like the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other area organizations are welcome to join the parade.

Vandals trash Grass Lake School

by GLORIA DAVIS

The vandalizing of Grass Lake School last week is still under investigation. Law enforcement authorities are looking into the case from the criminal damage aspect and Admin. Anthony Przeklasa is investigating the matter with school suspensions in mind if it turns out that students from the school were the perpetrators.

Although three students from Grass Lake have been identified by witnesses as having been seen leaving the school last Saturday at the time of the trashing, Przeklasa is not completely convinced the vandals have been caught.

Two wired windows were broken to gain entry to the school. School officials found a big mess in the gym caused when a fire extinguisher was discharged and clothes from the boys' lockerroom were strewn all over the floor. Catsup was spread all over the kitchen area and the power for the refrigerator was shut off so that all the milk inside had to be thrown away.

Cases of soda pop and approximately 400 cookies taken from the kitchen were found in the dumpster outside. It is assumed that the culprits intended to return for these goodies.

According to Przeklasa, two expensive locks were broken and two stop watches and pulse watches were taken.

It took approximately nine hours to clean up the mess left by the vandals.

Reports have two brothers under investigation. They have also implicated a third party and blamed the damage on him.

Scouts plan road rally

All registered Illinois Prairie Girl Scouts in the Antioch, Lake Villa, Lindenhurst, and Millburn should mark calendars!

A Road Rally will be held on Saturday, June 4 for adult Girl Scouts and their guests. At 6 p.m. "clever minds" will meet at the Antioch Scout House located on Main St.

The cost is $2 per person, and providing a dish to pass for the dinner that follows the rally. The activity of the rally will prove to be lots of fun, full of surprises, and time for adults to have their own adventure. For additional information contact a service unit chairperson.

On Sunday, June 11, from 12 to 3 p.m. Girl Scouts and their father (or other male adult) will meet at Camp Morrison, which is located on Gelden Rd. in Lake Villa.

The purpose is to improve and beautify the camp with one's favorite person helping, good old dad!

GOP picks Grinnell for sheriff's job

Republicans have picked Clinton "Clint" Grinnell to be their standard bearer for sheriff in the Tuesday, Nov. 8, general election. He was slated for the post in a unanimous decision by the 300-plus Lake County Republican Central Committee representing all of the county party precinct committeemen.

Grinnell will run against a yet-to-be-slashed Democrat for the remaining two terms of the unexpired term of the late Robert "Mickey" Babcox. Democratic party slatemakers are expected to meet in June to make a selection.

"These people support good law enforcement just like I do," Grinnell said shortly after being picked. "I am extremely pleased to have such a vote of confidence. Now, I am off and running," he said about launching a campaign to make him and his office more visible. "I am going to try to gain as much exposure as I can still do my job as sheriff."

Grinnell, 56, became acting sheriff when Babcox died in late March. He was later named sheriff by the Lake County Board of Supervisors until December. He came to the sheriff's department in 1982 when Babcox was elected to his first term and served as chief deputy until becoming the 37th sheriff in Lake County history. Prior to that he was with the Libertyville Police Department for 27 years, 13 of them as chief of police.

Grinnell has assembled a strong committee of countywide supporters to assist with his campaign. Co-chairing it are William Thompson of Antioch, former regional superintendent of schools; Arden Babcox of Grayslake, wife of the late sheriff; and Barbara Behm of Fremont Twp. clerk. His co-treasurers are Walt Tyszkowski of Libertyville, president of Libertyville Federal Savings and Loan Assn., and Mike Waller, first assistant state's attorney.

Committee advisors are Joe Vogler of Gurnee, Julius Marks of Libertyville, Rudy Magna Jr. of Gurnee, Jack Frisch of Libertyville, Lawrence Dunlap of Libertyville, Bernie Wysocki of Green Oaks, Claudia Hoogasian of Lake Forest, Kathleen Scott of Park City and Nick Gountais of Waukegan.

Officer gets arrest credit

Lindenhurst's newest police officer earned himself a commendation before putting on a uniform and badge. Edmondo Roncone did it while attending a 10-week police training program at the University of Illinois-Champaign.

It happened when he and an officer from Wilmette were returning to their dormitory one afternoon. They heard shots, even to the point of hearing some of the bullets near them. They determined someone was shooting out the windows in a school dormitory.

While the officer from Wilmette went to summon police, Roncone remained at the scene to determine where the shots originated and attempt to identify those doing the shooting. Police arrived and shortly afterwards arrested two students. With the help of Roncone and the officer from Wilmette they were able to make a positive identification and lodge formal charges.

Roncone was commended for their quick assessment of the situation and action in a letter to the Lindenhurst Police Dept. from the Champaign-Urbana Police Dept.

AARP's band, songs, dances win talent show

The All Star Band, consisting of senior citizens who are members of Area Chapter 387 (AARP) American Assn. of Retired People of Antioch, appeared in the Senior Talent Show on

2 stabbers plead guilty may get up to 90 years

Ron Carroll, 23, Antioch, and Anthony Kendall, 21, Elgin, plead guilty to the beating and stabbing of former Antioch resident Dan Foren, 29, last March, in the courtroom of Lake County Judge William Block.

Kendall pleaded guilty to charges of attempted murder and armed robbery while at a later hearing, Carroll pleaded guilty to two counts of armed robbery and two counts of armed violence.

Block set a sentencing date of Friday, June 24, after both men admitted beating and stabbing Foren in an empty field not far from Rte. 83 in the center of Antioch.

The two admitted that they had beaten Foren with a metal pipe and stripped him of his clothes because they were after a large amount of money they had seen on Foren when he bought them a drink for helping him with his car that was stuck on the side of the road.

Foren, who was stabbed many times, suffered broken bones and retained a very serious eye injury from the two men, escaped and fell bleeding into Pegs Country Kitchen on Rte. 83.

He identified his assailants and they were arrested a short time later during a drug raid in the apartment complex where Carroll lives.

Carroll and Kendall failed in their attempts to get big money from Foren, netting less than $30, because he had dropped it off at a friend's house before they started to beat him.

The charges call for sentences of from six to 30 years on each charge and the possibility exists that the two could get the maximum 30 years each on three charges with sentences to run concurrently because of the bloody viciousness of the crime.

That could put the two away for almost 90 years each.

Kendall told the court that Carroll had suggested killing Foren but he (Kendall) had told him not to.

Dist. 34 teachers get 7 percent hike

by GLORIA DAVIS

Dist. 34 Board of Education teachers will be getting a 7 percent salary hike next year according to the contracts negotiated by both the teachers union and the board of education, approved by the board at its last regular meeting.

According to Supt. Don Skidmore, the contract approved by the board is for two years with a one year reopening codicil concerning money and benefits. Board member Bruce Jablonski presented the contract agreed upon by both negotiating teams, to the board.

In other school board matters, Skidmore told the board that the governing board would be voting on SEDOL's FY89 budget at a meeting set for June 8.

Skidmore asked the board not to recommend that the representative from Dist. 34, Kathy Oddson, approve the SEDOL budget which shows a 26-30 percent increase. Skidmore told the board that though SEDOL's reasoning for the large increase, the loss of low cost students and the gain of high cost students, was understandable, "the magnitude of the increase is difficult to swallow."

The increase, when added to the district's own special education costs would be spending 11 percent of the district's budget, or $412,000, on special education. The board agreed with Skidmore.

In other business, the board also accepted Skidmore's recommendation that the district join the Lake County Educational Service Center which is set to cost $2,187 or $1.41 per student.

The board also: — approved the statement of compliance for the completion of the life safety work at Oakland and Antioch Lower Grade with the removal of encapsulated asbestos still on the to-do list.

— was presented with a copy of a 10-year maintenance program put together by Larry Schumacher to consider.

Maturing Sequoits finish season on a bright note

It's difficult to improve when you're a baseball team destined to finish in the second half of the North Suburban Conference race.

But Antioch's baseball team has apparently done just that, finishing the regular season on a high note with a 6-5 NSC win over Lake Forest.

"We've analyzed the last couple of weeks and with the exception of a doubleheader loss to Stevenson, we've split with everybody in the conference and that includes some very good teams. We're finally edging a little bit forward. We're hoping to gain a little maturity at the right time," Antioch Coach Rich Brown said.

The win over the Scouts gave the Sequoits a 6-12 NSC record, 10-17 heading into this week's regional tournament.

Antioch led 3-0 after two innings against the Scouts, but Lake Forest erupted for five runs in the third. The Sequoits did not begin their game-winning rally until two were out in the seventh.

Dan Grote, after a walk with the bases loaded made it 5-4, delivered the key hit, an RBI single scoring two runners.

Antioch was outthit by Lake Forest 9-8, but Mike Balbo had two hits, Ed Meltzer was two-for-three and Grote was two-for-four with three RBIs.

Antioch led 2-1 and the game was tied at 3-3 when Lake Forest scored five times in the fifth inning for an 8-3 margin. Antioch tried to rally in the seventh and scored three runs, but that was not enough.

Antioch wins over Panthers

by TIM McCANN

Round Lake closed out their Northwest Suburban Conference Championship season on a sour note Tuesday—losing 12-5 to Antioch.

Round Lake Coach Jim Prorock said, "It was a sad way to end the season but the team and I are very pleased with some of the things we've accomplished this year."

The loss was overshadowed by nine Round Lake errors in the game, with four of them coming in the first inning and resulting in four unearned runs for Antioch after they had two outs against them. "We came back in the third inning to cut it to 6-4 but then we got into some problems with our pitching," Prorock said.

Bright spots for the Panthers included the 2 for 4 day of Tim Monroe, who had a home run and a single in the losing effort. Also going 2 for 4 was Doug Watts, contributing two doubles.

Pitcher Doug Watts went the distance in Round Lake's previous game against Zion, turning in a five hit, two walk and four strikeout performance en route to a 3-2 Round Lake win. Chris Cooper had a two RBI trolley in the first inning.

65 teens competing for service honors

Commitment to their communities, schools, and families typify the 65 Lake County teens who were nominated in Youth Service Network's 4th annual Teen Recognition Project. Teachers, clergy, youth organization directors, and interested adults suggested teens who exhibited excellence in various areas of their lives.

Twenty finalists from this group will each be awarded a $100 U.S. savings bond at a special ceremony on Thursday, June 16 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium of the College of Lake County. All nominees, their families, friends, and sponsors are especially invited to attend along with the general public.

While many donations to fund the Teen Recognition Project have been received from Lake County social service agencies, legislators, churches, businesses and community organizations, more are still being sought. For further information, contact Susie Yule at (312) 223-3400.

Nurse Halper wins honor Commandant honors Air Force cadet

Pat Halper, RN, Spring Grove, the April Employee of the Month at Northern Illinois Medical Center, believes communication between the nurse, the patient, and the patient's family is the key to good care.

"Nursing starts with communication at the bedside," Halper says. "Bedside nursing is more than changing a dressing. It's the talk, and what is learned from the talk. If you missed that, you've missed a lot."

Halper went into nurse's training immediately out of high school, inspired by an admired friend of her mother. When she came to NIMC fifteen years ago, she witnessed considerable change from what she was used to seeing in the large teaching hospitals in Chicago.

"There were only 15 people in the building during the night," she said. "I found that the communication and teamwork was better in a small hospital. On any given day, I knew half the patients in the hospital as well as their visitors."

When her 18-year-old son, Paul, recently started to work in nutritional services at NIMC, Halper became even more aware of the teamwork at the center. "Paul knows which floors are really busy during the day, and he realizes that people have to make serious decisions," Halper said—emphasizing that her role interfaces with the other departments in the hospital—each of them important in getting the job done.

Halper likes to read and garden during her spare time. Her son, Paul, is taking a food service program at Lake County College, and daughter Jennifer is graduating from high school this year. Halper will be glad when she reaches her own graduation in a degree completion program, but she wants to continue work on a master's in the study of oncology. One of her duties at NIMC is to work with the oncology program.

"The biggest honor of becoming Employee of the Month is being chosen by my co-workers," Halper says. "They are supportive, and that's what's important for me." Pat serves as supervisor of the surgical/orthopedic unit—so that, although she works with patients, she is also helping the nursing staff to develop. With the coming of the radiation center at NIMC in the fall, she also answers endless telephone calls. "The variety of questions is endless," she says. "I have to use everything I've learned. No two calls are ever alike." She added that many people have the answers they want already, but they want to be reassured.

To My Patients And Friends

Dear Patient:

Due to my recent illness and age I reluctantly decided to retire from active medical practice as of May 31, 1988.

Dr. Mark Tucci, M.D. has been associated with me for the past four years and has been providing excellent medical care for many of my patients.

Dr. Tucci is taking over my practice and will continue to provide medical care to you after my retirement.

Your medical records remain on file at this office and may be transferred to another physician upon written request.

I wish you all the best of Health and Happiness and thank you for the 30 years of loyalty you gave me while practicing in Fox Lake.

Very truly yours,

Happy birthday, CLC

College of Lake County no longer is a teenager. CLC will be observing its 20th anniversary during the 1988-89 term with a variety of special events centered around the theme, "Learning to Make a Difference."

Plans are beginning to unfold with the anniversary year kicking off Sept. 17 with a colorful dinner-auction that will both recognize the people who played an important role in establishing the college and at the same time raising funds for a new Talent/Leadership Awards program, a scholarship fund to be operated under the auspices of the CLC Foundation.

Other events include the Faculty Forum, a series of faculty presentations on topics ranging from dance to trade balance issues; the Anniversary Lecture Series, bringing to campus three nationally-known speakers who have "made a difference"; and the publication of Twenty Years and Still Cooking, a commemorative cookbook that will go on sale for $5 in August, with profits benefitting the Foundation Scholarship Program.

All in all, the new term starting this fall sounds like a memorable year.

We'll take this opportunity to be the first to wish CLC a happy 20th birthday.

Getting voters registered

Through cooperation and persistence, Lake County has achieved something that U.S. Sen. Alan Cranston wants to accomplish by federal fiat—making it easier and more convenient for people to vote. In our opinion, the former is much preferred to the latter.

Cranston's proposed same-day voter registration bill opens the door to all sorts of ballot mischief. In Lake County, voter registration has been perfected to a science. County Clerk Linda Hess has worked diligently to expand voter registration opportunities. It is almost impossible to find an excuse not to register and participate in the balloting process.

Hess is right on target when she says there is no practical way to improve the registration process by shortening the time election officials need to prepare records.

Cranston's bill would open the door to massive vote fraud. To allow people to simply walk in off the street on election day to register and vote seems ludicrous, a mockery of the necessary mechanics needed to determine whether a person is a qualified voter.

If the Democratic senator from California wants to find out how to improve voter registration, he should spend a few days with Hess and her elections staff. They know how to do the job.

Tax load getting heavier

When it comes to taxes, Uncle Sam gets the first drink at the well. That rather harsh reality is one of the facts of life compounding calls for increased state spending.

The taxation burden of many citizens and most businesses has increased dramatically due to federal tax reforms of 1986 and 1987. Illinois companies already are paying $1 billion in new federal taxes this year, according to the Illinois Chamber of Commerce.

In addition, companies are paying $100 million in new state income taxes this year because of our linkage to the federal system, the Chamber points out. So business in Illinois isn't exactly flush when tax seekers go hunting for additional revenue.

The Chamber has put a $400 million price tag on the increased tax burden to business if the Illinois General Assembly approves an increase in the income tax has been advocated in some quarters. Illinois' per capita tax burden, 15th highest in the nation, doesn't figure to go down in the current political climate.

Buckling up to live life

Even though the campaign to "buckle up" has tapered off, reminders of that sound advice are more important now than ever.

Children and young persons, especially, need to be reminded about the need to use seat belts. In Lake County last year, three girls—ages 4, 7 and 11, and two boys—ages 9 and 11, were killed in car crashes. None of them were wearing a seat belt. Traffic accidents are also the leading cause of death for teenagers, but most of them are not buckling up. A Michigan survey of 709 high school students found that only 21 percent wear their safety belts all the time.

In the United States, nearly 700 children under the age of five are killed in auto accidents every year. Even if parents are reluctant to set a good example, they ought to be mindful of their children's safety. Buckle up. It's worth a life.

Letters to the editor are welcome. They should be on topics of general interest, approximately 250 words or less. All letters must be signed, and contain home address and telephone numbers. The editor reserves the right to condense all letters.

Openness issue

State Rep. Dick Klemm (R-Crystal Lake) is in the process of surveying approximately 44,000 constituents about their views on a variety of public issues. Klemm suggested that they might like to speak out on such topics as taxes, education, speed limits and AIDS. One pressing topic, perhaps the most burning issue of the day, was omitted by Klemm. Open space. Dick can add that one to his survey and fill a book. In this locality, open space is the topic of the day. Bar none.

Public welcome at distinctive memorial rite

by BILL SCHROEDER

Out of all the Memorial Day observances scheduled in this locality for Monday, May 30, one stands out as the most unusual. That will be the ceremony at 10 a.m. at Mt. Rest Cemetery on Edwards Rd., Rosecrans, at the grave of Henry Collins, a veteran of the American Revolutionary War, one of two such sites in Lake County.

Arrangements for the ceremony at the cemetery near the Illinois-Wisconsin state line are being made by the American Bicentennial Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution.

The Rev. George Heller, rector of St. Lawrence Episcopal Church, Libertyville, will officiate. Although the original gravestone has been vandalized, memorial markers have been installed by Gurnee American Legion Post 771 and the Waukegan Chapter DAR.

The public is invited to participate in the ceremony at Rosecrans, according to Richard W. Lyon, secretary of Bicentennial Chapter.

Two years ago SAR members conducted Memorial Day rites at Wauconda Cemetery at the grave of Reuben Hill, Lake County's other Revolutionary War veteran.

Mt. Rest Cemetery is easy to find for persons interested in attending Monday's ceremony. From Rte. 173, go north on Hunt Club Rd. At Edwards Rd., the first crossing, turn right and continue directly to the cemetery located between old Rte. 41 and the Northern Illinois Tollway.

MONUMENT—Joe Drobnick, going on 80 and running like 40, is about to launch the biggest project in his 48 years as a real estate broker and developer. "This is it," exclaims Drobnick, whose ambition, energy and youthful outlook belie fourscore years.

"It" is Glen Flora Ridge, a residential complex of 114 townhouses, 97 condominium units in two six-story buildings, plus a commercial area and a drive-in banking facility to be located on nearly 30 acres of land adjacent to Glen Flora Country Club, Waukegan, together financing to underwrite the cost of the project, estimated at $30 million. He'd like to keep that local, too.

The redoubtable Drobnick, who has never been known to shy away from a difficult task, has owned the property for years. Errant golfers have been shanking golf balls off a "Owned by Drobnick Realty" sign since the mid-1950s. "Now it's time to do something with that land," remarks Drobnick, who has filed for a planned unit development permit with the City of Waukegan.

Drobnick has put together a local team of consultants to make Glen Flora Ridge a reality—Waukegan architect Joe Legat; Waukegan law firm of Brydges, Riseborough, Morris, Franke & Miller; Rezek, Henry, Meisenheimer & Gende, Inc., engineers, of Libertyville; and Glenn M. Christensen & Associates, landscape architects, of Lake Villa. His next step will be to put Legat sees the mid-rise condos in a stylish modern mode with lots of glass and a balcony for every unit. Drobnick doesn't anticipate running into open space problems. Glen Flora Ridge will have an on-site good-sized storm water retention area. Besides the golf course, neighbors include the Waukegan Park District, Lake County Forest Preserve District and a school. Drobnick said generous chunks of the original parcel already have been acquired for open space. "I can't see where they would want to take any more of my property," remarked the crusty entrepreneur.

The Glen Flora Ridge team has done its home work. It is estimated that market value upon completion will be nearly $37 million. This will translate into $1,045,959.50 in real estate taxes per year. "I don't see how anyone can argue with that," Drobnick pointed out with a twinkle in his eye.

Medically unnecessary term widely misused

How often do we see a government bureaucrat act even slightly apologetic for goofing? This happened a couple of months ago when Willima L. Roper, M.D. head of the Health Care Financing Administration was asked to address a section of the American Medical Assn. regarding letters sent out by Medicare insurance carriers.

Dr. Roper heads a bureau that ad-

Medical Musings

By Dr. Leo Tannenbaum

ministratively carries out regulations and rules for paying providers of Medicare and Medicaid. His job is somewhat like the head of IRS. The similarity is striking because doctors and hospitals (the providers) have to prove their innocence just like you do when you have a tax audit. But they have to do it every day! Dr. Roper's mildly humble stance bears explaining.

The last few months has seen a particularly unfortunate, if not unfair, use of the term "medically unnecessary" by some Medicare carriers. Patients may have received a letter stating that the service rendered by their doctor was medically unnecessary. The letter may have even suggested that according to Federal law these doctors must refund fees, if paid, and that they could be prosecuted criminally. Would it surprise you to find that the decision to send this "necessity letter" was not made by a qualified physician, but in most instances by a computer or someone who wasn't even a physician? In some instances a letter was sent simultaneously to the doctor saying the same thing. Patients told that they were treated, tested, or operated unnecessarily will never trust their doctors again even if the government admits it was wrong. Humpty Dumpty cannot be put together again. The snafu is worth tracing.

The law, effective last October, relieves patients from payment of fees for "unnecessary treatment" by a "nonparticipating" doctor. There are "participating" doctors too. We must learn what the three terms in quotes mean because our health systems depend on them. In the trade jargon we may call participating physicians "P". They accept an assignment and take whatever the Medicare people decide to pay even though on the insurance from they ask for their regular fees. The government likes this because it can set standard fees and make these fees lower at will.

A nonparticipating physician (called NP) is one who doesn't believe that this country has reached a totalitarian status where arbitrary decisions should be made by a bureaucracy as to how much a citizen should earn for his or her work or services. The NP believes in a free market; patients will go to the most cost effective source if the price is too high. In many instances NP's fees are lower than that of the participating physicians (P). The NP is not dishonest as the wording of the law that caused the trouble implies. The NP is not heartless; he/she will, almost invariably, selectively take assignment, accepting whatever the government pays if the patient is indigent or paying the fee is a hardship.

"Unnecessary" is the fly in the ointment. Interpreted by a non-physician bureaucrat, who frequently is unfamiliar with medical terminology and is harnessed to a computer, strange things happen. A frequent error is calling a procedure or test unnecessary when the computer encounters something that is not covered by the insurance carrier. A letter explaining this would suffice; instead a vaguely worded letter implying criminality goes to both patient and doctor.

The looseness of terminology is weighted toward non-payment. This is because the Medicare people also have decided that some procedures are expensive, can be used only under special circumstances, and in the interest of economy should not be covered by their insurance thus keeping the doctor from providing them. The NP believes that treatment should not be dictated by a non-physician who has never seen the patient and depends on a computer. Actually, in many instances the patient really needs the test or treatment and this would be understood by a physician. If only medical providers are singled out for this kind of regulation the NPs believe THEY ARE NOT RECEIVING EQUAL PROTECTION UNDER THE LAW AS GUARANTEED UNDER THE CONSTITUTION. The wonder how long business, labor, insurance companies, or lawyers under increasing costs would consider it fair and tolerate their earnings frozen in time of peace. They believe it may be extended to any segment of our population, now that a precedent has been set. They also point out that with about ten bureaus involved, money is not being saved. With this kind of thinking, nonparticipating physicians become the "refuseniks" of medicine.

Participating physician (Ps) usually sympathizes with the NPs. The vast majority were NPs originally. When the government, by law thru Medicare, decided that medical costs were too high and rolled both the P's and NP's fees back to what they were about three years before ("only for 18 months") both groups accepted it with the intent to help stop the spiral of increased medical costs. But then when the specified time was up the freeze was extended. Participating physicians decided to take assignments for whatever the government would pay. They feared that their practices would be lost since patients would go where assignments were taken and fees were lower. Meanwhile the cost of medicolegal insurance doubled and tripled, employees go well deserved raises, and rents and office expenses kept rising. The participating physicians have hung in, hoping the government would relent. The amount of fee rise permitted them was near 3 percent. But the NPs were allowed much less and were pressured in many ways to take whatever they were given. One example is the law that singles them out and says, in effect, that only they will be prosecuted.

When Dr. Roper addressed the physicians in February, he first said it wasn't his fault but that the law amounts to an effort by Congress to harass nonparticipating physicians. He also admitted that some of the letters "were vaguely worded and not written in a good tone." His bureau was at fault in not giving doctors a chance to explain before sending out such an inflammatory letter. Another fault was advising the carriers about how to go about being fairer in carrying out the law by giving them only two weeks to prepare for carrying out the law April first!

Musings. Carriers of insurance, Medicare, and HMO's should be a bit more honest in their promotions and state they don't cover everything instead of just emphasizing that they are better and cheaper. You need not be a senior citizen to be alert because insurance companies follow Medicare. Perhaps they could adopt most of the four part plan Dr. Roper promised.

Grayslake and Mayor Edwin Schroeder should stick to their knitting and keep hands off the Forest Preserve District's planned annexation of Picket Fence Farms, says Libertyville Twp. Supv. F.T. "Mike" Graham. "This is one of the greatest land buys in the history of Lake County and will prove so in years to come," Graham said about the 1,340-acre parcel the county wants to buy for open space.

Graham predicted a study of the Forest Preserve District to be released in mid-June will show it is three to five times cheaper to buy and retain open land than to build an infrastructure of streets, sewers, schools and municipal buildings. He also said open space has a positive effect on the quality of life on people already living here or those expected in the future. For them he said the Pickett Fence Farm acquisition by Lake County will have the ultimate effect of increasing property values anywhere from $1 to $2,500 for up to five miles around.

"Mayor Schroeder has one major function, to protect the interests of the people in his community," the Libertyville supervisor said. "That jurisdiction ends at the village limits. If he wants to protect those people living there today as well as those 20 years from now, the best thing he could do is promote the acquisition of Picket Fence Farms by the county."

God bless James LaBelle of Zion, the Dist. 3 member of the Lake County Board of Supervisors. After five weeks of chemotherapy he appears to be winning his bout with cancer. It has been touch and go since late March when he was diagnosed as having lymphocytic lymphoma, a cancer of the lymph system having no known cure. What he originally thought was a "beer gut" turned out to be worse, much worse.

Since treatment started LaBelle has been able to resume almost a full-time schedule at his office in Chicago. He is an assistant to Gov. James Thompson for local government and transportation. Lots of people are praying for him.

Did you ever wonder whatever happened to some of the former Lake County sheriffs? How about Charles Larson or Norris Froelich? Or Stanley Christian and Walter Atkinson? Yes, these were all sheriffs before the regime of Robert "Mickey" Babcox, who has the distinction of being the only Lake County sheriff in modern memory to succeed himself.

Before him was Tom Brown, who was elected for one term in 1978. Now living in Ft. Meyers, Fla., he was operating a charter boat business. His predecessor, Edmond LaMagdeline, was the first Democrat elected to the office in 1974. After serving four years here was appointed McHenry County sheriff and later became under sheriff before returning to Lake County as an administrative aide under Babcox. Now retired, he lives in Wildwood.

Pat Clavey, sheriff from 1970 to 1974, still lives in Gurnee and with his sons, operates, U.S.A. Janitorial Service. Like the flag-waving Clavey, the company has an American flag as part of its logo. He also was the first sheriff eligible for re-election, but it did not happen until the Babcox era.

Preceding him was Harold Sheskie, the first sheriff where politics was not a requirement for office and all deputies were given civil service status. Elected for one term in 1976, he is now retired in Wildwood where he still dabbles in the insurance investment business.

Prior to him was the musical chair team of Charles Larson and Norris Froelich. When one wasn't sheriff the other was chief deputy and vice versa.

Ratch

There's little doubt Lindenhurst is among the fastest growing communities in Lake County. New homes are sprouting by the week. But something else is happening too.

Mayor Robert Ratch knows it, so do the people opening a new primary health care center in a new plaza being constructed by the State Bank of Antioch. Doctors and nurses will take care of just about any day-to-day illness or medical problem from head to toe.

"While you're at it you might want to think about getting a pediatrician for the center," Ratch recently told bank President Randy Miles. "Come to think of it, you might want an obstetrician, too." That part of the growing Lindenhurst population needs doctors, too.

Picking the perfect yard edger/trimmer

Everyone's home is a direct reflection of their tastes and lifestyles. As landscaping provides the first impression for visitors, put your best foot forward and have guests step into a setting that is attractive and well kept. A well-trimmed lawn is critical in giving a home that "cared-for" look.

The growing emphasis Americans place on keeping their homes attractive has made edgers and trimmers the hottest selling items in outdoor power equipment. The wide variety of edgers and trimmers available can make choosing the one that best suits personal needs a difficult task.

Tips to help the selection easier:

— Line trimmers are excellent for trimming hard-to-reach places, such as around shrubbery and up against buildings. Powered by either electricity or gas, they use a rapidly revolving monofilament line "whip" to trim grass, weeds and brush. Line trimmers, however, are not suitable for trenching along sidewalks and driveways. It's tough to cut a straight line with them.

— Edging machines, commonly called "edger/trimmers", are used to trim edges and cut the trench along sidewalks and driveways. They use a vertical revolving metal blade, much like a lawnmower blade, and are powered by both gasoline and electricity. Although edger/trimmers work great for trenching, they aren't suited for trimming around shrubbery.

— If the driveway and sidewalk does not exceed 100 feet, you may find an electric edger/trimmer ideal. Gasoline-powered equipment is generally heavier, more rugged and, of course, more portable.

Treatment center to expand to meet need

With a 9.5 percent increase in the number of patients this year, Parkside Lodge of Mundelein has started new construction to add rooms for its drug and alcohol treatment center. The decision was made in conjunction with Parkside Medical Services' national expansion program under way and the rising need for more beds. According to Exec. Dir. Rev. Merrill Kemfert, "We are about the only sector in the medical field to be expanding facilities and space capabilities. With the rising public awareness of the national drug/alcohol abuse problems and more people seeking treatment today, Parkside has taken steps to ensure the community it will be able to meet the public's future needs."

The Lodge has treated over 5,000 chemical dependent people since its opening in 1981. At its current location, Parkside can handle a maximum of 95 patients. With completion planned for this fall, Parkside will be able to increase its daily inpatient bed capacity to about 116 (based on final configuration). With their outpatient program, this means they will be able to treat over 1800 patients on an annual basis at the Mundelein location.

Cocaine and alcohol abuse have been rapidly spreading into the workplace in most areas of Chicago. Companies are preparing themselves by conducting supervisor and employee training. Parkside Community Relations Rep. Wally Mackey stated, "Most human resources directors are asking management sensitive questions these days. They want to be prepared for the employee who comes to their office asking for help with drugs or alcohol. Further, they want to learn what to do with the employee who has a demonstrated decline in job performance, and a drug/alcohol problem is suspected. Parkside Lodge of Mundelein has prepared two simple (one page) procedural guides to address these two issues and these guides are available to human resources directors upon request."

Parkside senses some of the old fears of entering treatment are decreasing. People have been known to delay treatment because of what others may say about them, the fear of being fired, and the issue of paying for the treatment. Today, human resources directors have the ability to maintain confidentiality, rarely will an employer fire someone for entering treatment, and all medical plans in the State of Illinois must provide for some treatment coverage in most cases. The company's medical plan will provide for most of cost for treatment.

CLC offers help to aspiring businessmen

For those who have always wanted to run their own business, or who have a business now and want to make it bigger and better, the Lake County Small Business Development Program can help.

The Lake County Economic Development Commission and the College of Lake County's Center for Economic Development created this program to give aspiring entrepreneurs assistance with starting a new business. The Small Business Development Program offers two levels of courses to meet specific needs plus follow-up sessions to keep in touch.

The first course is entitled Level I: Starting A New Business. This course examines what it is like to be a business owner, how well a business idea fits the market, how to acquire necessary resources, differences between lenders and investors, and surviving "start-up."

The second course is entitled Level II: Business Improvement Skills. This course is designed to help established business owners identify company strengths and weaknesses and develop strategies to help the company grow. Topics include basic management skills, marketing and sales strategies, recordkeeping, and business law and risk information.

Several times a year, the program also hosts a Level III course entitled Small Business Development Program Business Forum. A guest speaker will address current and former participants. There is scheduled time for individuals to meet and exchange ideas regarding their business ventures.

Computers, task migration opportunities for secretaries

The computerization of the office is changing not only what people do, but how they work as well, according to D. J. Blum, a district manager for Kelly Services, a leading national temporary company, with an office in Libertyville. Blum says that office automation has created new and dynamic opportunities in the workplace.

"We see that secretaries are experiencing and enjoying the benefits of what we call 'task migration,'" Blum said. "Jobs done by management five years ago, such as spreadsheet preparation and database management, are now accomplished by secretaries."

According to International Data Corporation, by the early 1990's, the number of personal computers will equal the number of white collar workers. This will provide even more opportunities for secretaries as task migration expands current jobs beyond what they are today.

"In fact, it is our perception that the routine clerical tasks performed in the past have been streamlined- if not eliminated- with computers, freeing secretaries to do more creative and analytical work," Blum said.

Office automation is blurring the traditional dividing lines between "clerical" and "professional" work.

WKRS-WXLC features series on stress in workplace

Stress in the workplace is the subject of a two-part "Chicago Medical School Reports" radio series on WKRS-WXLC, examining the issues of job-related stress and stress that is brought to the job from home. Guests for both programs are William H. Kelley, president of Goelitz Confectionery Company (manufacturers of President Reagan's favorite jelly beans); and Dr. Bala Sarma, associate professor in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at University of Health Sciences/The Chicago Medical School.

Kelley and Sarma will discuss the nature and causes of stress generally, how stress presents itself in the workplace, and what companies or employees themselves can do to prevent, reduce, or manage undue stress.

Part I will air Sunday, June 5; Part II on Sunday, June 12; both on WXLC (102.3 FM) from 6 to 6:30 a.m., and on WKRS (1220 AM) from 9:20 to 9:50 a.m. Part II will also air on WKRS from 12:20 to 12:50 p.m.

Panel features faculty member

College of Lake County nursing faculty member Vicki Francis was part of a national panel discussion titled "Planning, Sharing, Winning."

The presentation at the National Organization for the Advancement of Associate Degree Nursing Convention focused on successful efforts to preserve multi-level entry into registered nursing.

Last year, Illinois was targeted as a key state to implement legislative changes to restrict qualification for state boards to graduates of four-year degree programs. CLC faculty member Francis, a resident of Gurnee, joined with other individuals and groups to counter these efforts in Illinois and successfully maintained multi-level entry into the registered nursing profession.

This endeavor provides a model for other states if similar efforts to exclude two-year associate degree or three-year diploma graduates are attempted.

The convention was held in late April in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Nuclear energy is paying off. Since last October, you have been receiving credit on your electric bill. This fuel adjustment credit has reduced your electric energy charge by about 5% to 10%.

The months ahead will bring even more savings. In fact, these credits may total $200 million or more through June 1988.

This fuel adjustment credit is due to our nuclear plants, which, in terms of fuel cost, produce electricity up to 75% more economically than our coal-burning stations. Those savings are passed on to you.

Credit where it's due. You deserve it.

STRICTLY for SENIORS

Looking forward to life for a life birth of new foal

by VERN CUBBERLY

I fell in love as soon as I saw her, in love with one of God's most beautiful creatures—a five-gaited horse. Tennessee Rose was her name. Her papers gave no hint of how she got the name. But since she was foaled in Tennessee, I suppose that accounts for the first part. I like to think of the second part, Rose, was given to her because of her beauty of color and confirmation—rich brown coat with splashes of white; tall and straight, some fifteen plus hands; dainty, a high graceful step with springy action; a proud and erect well-shaped head with upright ears and alert eyes. But most of all a disposition more desirable than the fragrance of the flower from whence she derived her name.

She was a delight to watch—a streak of brown flashing from barn to pasture, mane and tail fully unfurled, legs kicking and hooves pounding as she was off with a burst of power. Her muscles contracted and expanded in rippling action under a taut, healthy skin; slender but strong legs reaching in long, fluid strides, eating up distance in huge gulps. With nostrils distended and blowing jets of vapor, her head stretching almost beyond balance, ears flattened and tail spanking the breeze she zoomed around the pasture. Then abruptly changed into a high-stepping, rhythmic trot with head arched in a

I wanted another like her, so had her bred to a handsome stallion whose breeding was first class. In due course, her time to give birth arrived. I spread a thick bed of straw in her stall and anxiously awaited. Her eyes and soft whinny called to me for help as she strained to give the world a new life.

Vern Cubberly

Each effort caused a quivering of muscles and a fresh ooze of sweat. Gently, I dried her with a towel and softly spoke her name as tears of frustration burned my eyes.

My two young daughters watched wide-eyed, excited and amazed at what they were seeing, the birth of a new foal. They wanted to help, but could not. They and I could do nothing but speak encouraging words.

"Where is that Vet?" I mumbled. There was no answer.

An hour or so later, he rushed in, made his examination and said, "I think I can save the foal, but I'm doubtful about the mare. She doesn't look too good."

Together, we struggled, managing to save the foal, but lost my beloved Rose. Thus a life was lost while a new one appeared as a replacement, an almost replica of the mother—a rich brown coat, with four white stockings and a splash of white, from forehead to nose.

Adopt-A-PAL receives gift

Adopt-A-PAL, a new attack on illiteracy in Lake County mounted by the Private Industry Council Foundation, received a big boost today with a gift of $5,000.00 from Abbott Laboratories.

Adopt-A-PAL is the name given to the Foundation's fundraising drive for $75,000 to purchase a computerized literacy system from IBM. PALS (Principle of Alphabet Literacy System) is designed to bring adult poor readers, those with a third or fourth grade reading level, up to a sixth or seventh grade level in just twenty weeks. It also can be used by persons who are at lower grade levels and can bring them up about two grade levels in the same 20 week period.

According to Ms. Trinski, co-chairman of the drive, Abbott Laboratories is just one of a growing group of Lake County corporations which recognizes the threat of increasing worker scarcity. She continues, "Employers who can't find qualified applicants may have to delay expansion, compromise standards, or increase costs. Adopt-A-PAL addresses the illiteracy problem from both the employer's and the worker's perspective," she says.

According to Ms. Trinski, there are currently 67,000 county residents with less than a high school education of which 31,000 have completed only eight grades or less. Many of these individuals have come to realize that the strategies they have devised to hide their illiteracy will no longer work and that they will have to learn to read and write to be able to compete in today's labor market.

The Adopt-A-PAL committee of the Foundation has proposed to follow up on the progress of the Pal and to send this information to the donor.

Co-chairing the Adopt-A-PAL committee with Ms. Trinski is Rita Cooper of Cooper International. These women are members of the Private Industry Council and have volunteered time to work with the Foundation on this project.

Companies interested in participating in Adopt-A-PAL may reach Ms. Trinski at 587-0099, or Ms. Cooper at 634-0020.

Winthrop Harbor approved new business plan

The Village of Winthrop Harbor approved the Sheridan Road Business Plan which was developed by the Lake County Planning Department in conjunction with the Winthrop Harbor Planning Commission. The Business Plan delineates three factors for economic opportunity within the Village: 1) The construction of the North Point Marina. 2) Winthrop Harbor's centralized location between the Chicago and Milwaukee markets. And 3) The wealth and expanding population of Lake County.

The Business Plan provided three reasons for its implementation: 1) The variety of goods and services currently available in Winthrop Harbor is restricted (97 percent of the residents shop out-of-town). 2) The amount of commercial space in Winthrop Harbor represents only slightly more than 25 percent of the potential commercial and motel space that could be constructed along Sheridan Rd. and Marina Dr. And 3) The visual appearance of the Sheridan Road commercial area needs to be substantially upgraded.

Twelve main tasks are outlined in the Business Plan and are regarded as the suggested priorities that the Village should implement. The twelve tasks are:

- Create a Tax Increment Financing (TIF) District.
- Annex south and west and improve zoning.
- Upgrade the Sheridan Road streetscape.
- Develop the North Point Plaza triangle.
- Develop a Village Center.
- Develop the Commons.
- Develop the Northern Gateway.
- Develop the Southern Gateway.
- Develop the Chiwaukee Corporate Center.
- Market tourism.
- Improve transportation and circulation.

Contact Paul Pushee at (312) 872-3846 for more information on the Sheridan Road Business Plan.

Home movies-real thing, filmmaker makes good

by GLORIA DAVIS

When he was 12-years-old and going to Millburn Grade School, Patrick Read Johnson, made a home movie that he showed at school.

Lakeland Newspapers thought this young man's cinematic efforts were so important, that a two-page graphic story on Johnson and his movie production ran in the Warren-Neport Press.

His love for movies continued as he attended Warren High School, graduating six months early.

Because he was trying to get into his movie career as soon as possible, he spent the next six months absorbing everything that he could learn about moviemaking at Ill. State University.

Back in 1980, Ill. State had a very limited movie curriculum, so Johnson, at 18, headed to California where the action he was looking for was.

Without any further schooling, his innate talent got him jobs working on national commercials for Levis and Burger King. This talent kept him earning a living working on special effects and writing for the next eight years, a real oddity in moviemaking.

Then he was sent to North Carolina to work on the sequel to "King Kong."

A bigger and better chance came when he was asked to work on "Dead Heat," a movie starring Joe Piscopo, Darren McGavin and Vincent Price now playing at Lakehurst.

Judging by the credits as they flash on the screen, Johnson was a jack of all trades during the filming of "Dead Heat."

He is listed as second unit director, supervisor of special effects, graphic arts supervisor and co-composer of the movie's title song.

Also listed in those same credits is the name of his new bride, Caroline Pham-Johnson, who was the assistant director of the picture. Yes, they met on the set, a case of "love at first shot," one might say.

Meanwhile, at 26, back at his typewriter, this versatile Orson Welles to tomorrow has also authored and sold several movie scripts that have yet to be produced.

At present he is busy doing the special effects on a new movie titled "Warlock."

Patrick Johnson

Johnson's parents, Richard and Janet Framke, who still live in Wadsworth, are as proud as punch of their fledgling moviemaker. His dad is the retired superintendent of Millburn School.

According to his mother, he often gives credit to a speech teacher he had at Warren High School named Mr. Davis and an unnamed English teacher for piquing his interest in writing, directing, etc.

His goal is to be a full-fledged writer and director and he intends to direct a movie he calls "Summertime."

Johnson wrote the script which is based on the story of a group of boys growing-up in an area greatly resembling his home town of Wadsworth.

Hanson top Scout

David Hanson, son of Mrs. Joyce Hanson, Gurnee, has achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. He has been a member of Boy Scout Troop 75, Wadsworth, since 1982. His service project was completed in the summer of 1987 in Park City with the distribution of identification stickers printed with the emergency telephone number of the fire department.

The Eagle Scout Court of Honor at Saint Patrick Church in Wadsworth, included Scouts from Troop 75 in both opening and closing ceremonies.

Top golfer

College of Lake County student Rick Korjenek has qualified to compete in the 1988 National Junior College Athletic Assn.'s Golf Tournament to be held in Scottsdale, Ariz., June 7-10. He is a Lindenhurst resident and will be accompanied by CLC Golf Coach Ernie Gilroy. Korjenek finished ninth in Ill. High School Tournament as member of Antioch High School's golf team in 1986.

Brickhouses chair benefit Donut Day

The Salvation Army Donut Day will be held June 3. This will be the 51st observance of the one-day annual fundraiser. This year, Mrs. Ruth Anderson will serve as the Lake Zurich area chairperson for the annual tag day. As chairperson, Anderson will seek out community volunteers and coordinate their efforts.

Donut Day commemorates the early days of Salvation Army service to the military and is a reminder that the Army still serves human need in time of emergency.

"The organization is hoping to raise $200,000 areawide," states Jack and Pat Brickhouse. Hall of Famer Brickhouse and his market executive wife Pat, longtime supporters of the Salvation Army, are this year's general co-chairpersons for Donut Day throughout the Chicagoland area.

The Brickhouses commend Anderson for her Lake Zurich leadership of the Donut Day effort.

Says Anderson, "I can't do it by myself, that's for sure; I hope there are a lot of Salvation Army friends and organizations willing to give a couple of hours on Donut Day and help tag." Anyone wishing to help in the effort can contact Anderson, Donut Day chairperson, at (312) 438-7691.

ROCK TRACKS

In the U.K.'s post-punk turmoil of 1978 sprang Bauhaus, the original Gothic superstars who, over the next five years, built a worldwide following with electrifying performances centered around their extraordinary frontman, Peter Murphy.

In 1983, at the height of their fame, Bauhaus split up. Fans everywhere mourned the loss of the band, but Peter felt that Bauhaus and its style had run its course. Since then, his various musical endeavors have led him to a solo career, an inevitable move for such a startling musician. Love Hysteria is Murphy's new Beggars Banquet release, an LP that showcases the talent of a man whose multi-dimensional performing, singing and song-writing abilities continue to gather momentum with each passing effort.

Simon Rogers (The Fall) produced Love Hysteria, which boasts eight brand new Murphy compositions together with a cover of the Iggy Pop/Stooges timeless anthem: "Funtime." Recorded in the U.K., the album features his new permanent band: Peter Bones on guitar; Paul Statham on keyboards; Eddie Branch on bass; and Teri Bryant on drums. Songs like the first single, "All Night Long," show off the new Peter Murphy — the man, whose style and post-punk cult status have, merged with the other, more mature facets of the artist.

John Mellencamp will embark on the third North American leg of his Lonesome Jubilee tour May 26th at Los Angeles' Irvine Meadows. The 29-concert series will take John through the Pacific Northwest, Canada, the Midwest and the Northeast, concluding on July 30th in Milwaukee.

"Shakedown" gets shot down by too many questions

✓ No

by BILL DOTSON

How did Batman and Robin start down the batpoles in civilian clothes and end up in costume at the bottom? How does a simple pair of glasses keep anyone from recognizing Clark Kent as Superman? Where did David Banner keep getting all those expensive clothes he shredded every week when he "Hulked out"?

All the above are members of an elite club known as "Questions You're Not Supposed To Ask" (QYNSTA).

It's a common gesture of goodwill on the viewer's part to suspend disbelief and allow the writers to get away with things like that to keep the story rolling. Otherwise, it just doesn't work.

Often, I'm willing to excuse such things and accept the story as presented. But when the "QYNSTA's" begin to number in the double digit range, that suggests carelessness and/or laziness on the part of the writers and that is no longer so easy to overlook.

That brings us to the new action thriller "Shakedown". Like "Sunset" (reviewed here last week), it also stars a likable team, Peter Weller and Sam Elliott, who deserve a stronger story than they were given.

Not a word of background explanation is offered for the unlikely event of how a crusading public defender (Weller) and a scruffy undercover cop (Elliott) became such good friends. An exchange of dialogue between them early on, which contains information crucial to the plot, is frustratingly difficult to hear, due to the background noise drowning out Elliott's trademark low, monotone voice.

There is one scene which contains enough "QYNSTA's" for the whole movie. Weller is about to be murdered by rogue cops in the police station and Elliott comes looking for him. How does he know Weller is there? Why does one of those cops tell Elliott—honestly—exactly where to find him? Why was no one else in this crowded police station aware of what was going on? Why did—well, I could go on (and on) but the point is made.

In its favor, "Shakedown" has, along with its two stars, a couple of adequate supporting performances by Patricia Charbonneau as a prosecutor and Antonio Fargas (best known for his role as "Huggy Bear" on "Starsky and Hutch") as a creep. There are also some exciting—but preposterous—action sequences.

"Shakedown" has its good points but they are ultimately undone by a plot with holes big enough to fly the space shuttle through (with Elliott hitching a ride on the landing gear).

"Shakedown", like junk food, plastic but enjoyable

✓ Yes

by GLORIA DAVIS

I saw "Shakedown" starring Peter Weller and Sam Elliott and I found it to be full of action, good cinematography and most of the ingredients that it takes to make for an exciting cops and robbers thriller.

It is a fast moving adventure about an off-beat detective and a legal aid council chasing drug dealers and rouge cops in New York City.

I like Weller and Elliott and discovered myself rather enjoying the colorful explosions, crashing, smashing chases, etc.

Maybe it was the mood I was in when I saw it, or maybe that enjoyment should really be chalked up to the need to escape raw reality once in awhile, because the action in this film is so far from reality that it could have come from Disney Studios.

Elliott plays the scuzziest undercover cop yet, looks really dissipated, yet performs feats that would make Superman jealous.

The one where he grabs onto the struts of a jet that is taking off from a racing sports car, hangs on and tosses a grenade into the plane, caring not that it could crash into the Empire State Bldg., is a bit too much.

Again we have the good guys killing a lot of other good guys while chasing the bad guys.

Weller has his bit of unbelievability when he has to defend a dope dealer wrongfully blamed for killing a cop and get the whole thing under wraps inside of a week so that he can go work for his soon to be father-in-law on Wall St.

One can't even get a traffic ticket hearing inside of a week in today's court system!

Another fairyland fiasco takes place when Weller decides to break into the police evidence department and climbs a story-and-a-half up the side of a dirty old office building dressed in suit and tie with wire snippers in tow.

Of course there is some love interest when the prosecuting attorney just happens to be Weller's old girlfriend who took off destroying the greatest love-match since Romeo and Juliet because she didn't like his attitude.

The flame still burns so Weller deserts his little rich girl and Wall St. to continue being a do-gooder—oh sure!

All this and somehow, I repeat, showing time sped by. What can I say? I also go on junk food binges once in awhile and I even liked the Edsel I drove into the ground years ago.

"We will also have a large vehicle exhibit," adds Randy Donley, owner of the Seven Acres Museum. "This year's vehicle exhibit will include World War II jeeps, half-tracks, trucks, cannons, and even a Stewart tank."

The battles being recreated include that of Anzio Beach and fighting which took place in northern France. The battles will be performed twice daily at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. all three days of Memorial Day weekend.

'NutraSweet Classic' to be held at Kemper

The third annual NutraSweet Classic, a day-long golf and tennis fundraiser, will be held at Kemper Lakes Golf Club, Hawthorn Woods, on June 27.

Hall of Fame running back Gale Sayers and former Cubs superstar Ron Santo are among the celebrities joining the classic.

The event is expected to raise $100,000 for diabetes research. Diabetes, which afflicts nearly 12 million Americans, is the third leading cause of death in the United States.

The national honorary chairman of the NutraSweet Classic is actor Alan Thicke. His 13-year-old son, Brennan, is a diabetic.

Thicke said, "Every day, researchers are one step closer to finding a cure for diabetes. It's fundraisers like this which enable the research to continue."

The corporate chairman for the Chicago tournament is John Cardwell, executive vice president, Bessemer Securities Corp.

The Chicago event will feature an 18-hole, best-ball golf tournament and a Round Robin doubles tennis competition, the last of five national NutraSweet Classics this year. The NutraSweet Classic series has a goal of raising $500,000 for research supported by the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation.

In addition to Sayers and Santo, other celebrities scheduled to participate in the Chicago tournament are: Bears' defensive tackle Steve McMichael and quarterback Mike Tomczak, former Bears Ted Albrecht and Brian Baschnagel, and Cubs legend Andy Pafko.

The Deerfield-based NutraSweet Company is fully underwriting the event, so all proceeds will be donated to the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation to fund research.

For more information on the event, contact the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation at (312) 855-1022.

As part of the three-day show, a special education lecture by Nicholas A. Pappas, chief architect of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, will be presented on both Friday and Saturday. The focus of the lecture will be on the fascinating history of preservation efforts in Williamsburg, Va.

James McNitt, a member of the Alpine Toastmasters Club of Lake Zurich, won the speech contest of the northwest division of Chicagoland Toastmaster Dist. 30, which was held Saturday, April 16 at Kemper in Long Grove.

The next competition he faces will be June 4, at the Dist. 30 speech contest, to be held at the Radisson Hotel in Arlington Hts. He will compete against the winners of the other divisions in Chicagoland.

The winner of this contest will compete in the Toastmaster Region Five contest to be held in June in St.

Louis. The winner of that contest will compete in the International Speech Contest, the so-called "World Series" of public speaking, to be held in August at the International Convention in Washington D.C.

ASK TONI

Tim Reid was a regular on '70s variety shows

By Toni Reinhold

Where have I seen Tim Reid besides on "Frank's Place"? - T.P., Barboursville, W.Va.

Tim Reid

Reid was a regular on "The Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis Show" and "The Richard Pryor Show" before landing the role of disc jockey Gordon Sims, a.k.a. Venus Flytrap, on "WKRP in Cincinnati," which aired from 1978 to 1982. He also starred in the short-lived sitcom "Teachers Only" (1983) and played Marcel "Downtown" Brown on "Simon & Simon" (1983-87).

Were the guests on "This Is Your Life" really surprised that they had been chosen, or had they been told in advance? - M.B., New Paltz, N.Y.

This program, created and hosted by Ralph Edwards, honored both ordinary people and celebrities by re-creating their pasts on national TV. Generally the guests were not told that they would be honored, and if they found out, their "life" was canceled. There were a few exceptions, though. Comic Eddie Cantor was told in advance because he had a heart condition, and no one wanted to shock him. Singer Lillian Roth was told because her lifelong battle with alcoholism was considered very personal.

What is the title of the movie in which Doris Day played a woman who had lobsters to sell, but the railroad delayed a shipment, causing her great concern? Who were Day's co-stars? - A.E.L., Hastings, Newfoundland You're thinking of "It Happened to Jane" (1959), which also starred Jack Lemmon, Ernie Kovacs, Steve Forrest and Teddy Rooney. The film was also released as "Twinkle and Shine." By the way, for all of you fans who have asked for Day's address: Write to her at Box 223163, Carmel, CA 93922.

What is the name of the boy who played Jean Arthur's son in "Shane"? Is he the same fellow who played opposite Paul Newman in "Hud"? - M.D., Nanaimo, British Columbia, Canada

Brandon de Wilde played Billy in "Shane" (1953), and 10 years later appeared with Newman, Patricia Neal and Melvyn Douglas in "Hud."

Club honors Reitz

Carmel High School's Mark Reitz was honored by the North Shore Traffic Club as Lake County's athlete of the year.

The award is given in recognition of athletic success during the fall and winter sports seasons. Spring and summer sports are not eligible for this award.

Reitz was the guest of honor at a banquet held at the Cabriolet restaurant in Libertyville. Guest speakers at the dinner were Wayne Carive, the radio voice of the Chicago Bears and Gordy Galespy, head football coach at St. Francis College. Carive spoke on the importance of a winning attitude and Galespy discussed the advantages of athletic participation.

"It was one of the greatest moments of my life and an honor I will never forget," Reitz said.

Friedman advances

Warren Twp. High School junior Ed Friedman won the Prairie State Games regional competition at the 132-pound weight class. Friedman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Friedman of Gurnee, will not go to Champaign to represent the North Shore Region in the Prairie State Games in July.

FCA attends banquet

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes at Warren Twp. High School attended the 18th annual FCA Chicago spring banquet. Pat Williams of the Orlando Magic, Jimbo Covert of the Chicago Bears and Dale Craft spoke to the high school athletes. The local Gurnee businesses and individuals who contributed to the trip were: Edward Mark, Dr. Edward May, Country Cosmetics, Walter Grundy, Gurnee Breakfast Exchange Club, Vern Mack, Petropoulos Brothers, Bill Nadeau, Nate Naden, G. Edward Hucker, Depke, McClure's Garage, Gurnee Exchange Club, Country Market, Smith's Standard Service, Gurnee Club, Henerson Construction, Gagewood Lions Club, and Lake County States Atty. Fred Foreman.

Skateboarders compete

RAIDOGS, Waukegan's Youth Center, will be sponsoring its first Junior Skateboard Championship June 1-2.

The competition was prompted by the increase of students using the basement RAIDOGS to practice skateboarding. A five-foot ramp was built in addition to the three ramps already in place.

Haig Parvonian, youth coordinator, said the students really enjoy the new ramp.

Skateboard competition will be held in the parking lot on the corner of Grand Ave. and County St. from 3 to 5 p.m. RAIDOGS will have an open house following the competition from 5 to 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served and replays of the competition will be shown on big screen television.

Lake County sports leaders laud Ryan

Recognition is a need which everyone possesses. Whether you are a painter, artist, business owner, or candlestick maker.

Or athlete.

And as far as former Waukegan basketball star David 'Corky' Calhoun is concerned, one of the qualities which makes Lake County sportscaster Keith Ryan special is his way of handling that need.

"Too many kids join gangs or do drugs for the need for recognition," Calhoun told Ryan and about 200 others gathered at a testimonial dinner in Ryan's name.

Calhoun, too, experienced the negative side of recognition early. To gain attention, he was the class clown, the prankster.

But then he met Ryan after moving to Lake County.

"You are one of the special people who did touch my life," Calhoun, who starred in the NBA for eight seasons, said.

Ryan was praised by former Zion-Benton basketball star Billy McKinney (through videotape, as a mix-up had McKinney at the Gurnee Holiday Inn one day early) as the best interviewer; by Our Lady of Humility parish pastor Father Joe Curtis for his help in setting up the athletic department there; and Gurnee Mayor Dick Welton and Waukegan Mayor Robert Sabonjian who both gave awards to Ryan.

The night was not all on the serious side. U.S. Cable showed a broadcast of some of Ryan's funniest clips seen by

Mustangs just perfect for NSC finish

The Mundelein Mustangs are on a mission.

Denied by six outs of a trip to Pekin and the state finals a year ago, Coach Jim de Rivera's team finished off the North Suburban Conference season with a perfect 18-0 mark and momentum going into their own regional.

"Ourselves," de Rivera said when asked the Mustangs' biggest obstacle. "We're on a mission to take last season one step further."

The Mustangs won three games last week to improve their season record to 26-1 overall. That "one" was a 7-6 loss to Cary-Grove in the opener that spoiled an otherwise perfect season.

Mundelein is the top seed in its own regional tournament. They faced winless North Chicago in the opening round Thursday. If they got beyond that game, a May 28 semifinal game against the Barrington-Stevenson winner looms. The title game is May 31.

Mundelein started the week with a 9-1 win over Waukegan East. Pitcher Susan Musselwhite started a memorable hitting week by hitting for the cycle and picking up the win.

Then the next day against Fenton, Mundelein scored five runs in the first inning and did not look back en route to a 10-0 romp. Musselwhite led the 10-hit barrage with a three-for-four day. That included a fifth inning home run and four RBIs. Lisa Zeigler contributed a triple and two RBIs in a two-for-three day.

county sports fans.

Following the two hours of speakers, letters and awards, it was the honoree's chance to give his response.

Ryan gave his praise to the establishment of the scholarship in his name at the College of Lake County. CLC will give the scholarship.

Ryan, a longtime sportscaster for WKRS and U.S. Cable of Lake County, who is suffering from cancer, seemed sincerely touched by the outpouring of thanks. He received a letter from virtually every high school in Lake County. Some were from coaches who were just starting; most were from veterans who had been long-established in Lake County sports. All knew and praised Ryan's efforts.

Milner to double his chances at state meet

For most track and field athletes, advancing to the state track and field meet at Eastern Illinois University in their specialty is the high point of the year.

But Lake Zurich's Martin Milner will be doubling his state meet experience at Charleston this weekend as he qualified in not one, but two events at the Zion-Benton sectional.

Milner will be leading an area contingent to Charleston, competing in both the 200 and 400 meter dashes.

Milner, a senior, will have the added advantage of having already comepting at the state meet level as he qualified last year in the 200.

"Having a year's experience always helps a kid," Lake Zurich Coach Paul Willis said.

Milner finished first in the 200 at 40.2, edging Jahamal Hardy of Waukegan East's 49.6. The top two in each event and those who beat the qualifying times continue their seasons at EIU.

In the 400, Milner beat his previous best by five tenths of a second, clocking a 22.2.

"I think Martin's 400 meter time will be in the top 10," Willis said.

The Bears, who won the Northwest Suburban Conference meet, also advanced senior Jeff Burnham in the discus. Theo Cox of meet-winner Zion-Benton won with a toss of 161-3 but Burnham's throw of 153-8 was good enough for second place.

For most teams, the goal was on individual bests Saturday as Waukegan East and West and the host Zee-Bees dominated the team scores. Zion-Benton won the sectional title for the second time in four years with 62 and one-half points. West had 46 and Libertyville ended up edging East for third 31-29. Stevenson was the highest area finisher with 24 points and Lake Zurich had 20. North Chicago had 17 and one-half points for seventh place and Carmel and Round Lake were tied for eighth.

The Patriots' highlight was from T.R. Jenkins, who finished first in the 3,200 meter run with a 9:54.2.

Carmel's Jeff Zgonina led the Corsairs' efforts by winning the shot put with a heave of 51-8 and one-half inches.

Laphonso Woods of Round Lake tied for first in the 110 meter high hurdles with a 14.7.

Grant's versatile Joe Wach led his team to eight points with a championship in the high jump, leaping 6-7.

"His best is 6-8 and a lot of people have jumped 6-7 or 6-8," Grant Coach Sam Spasovich said of Wach.

The meet featured some courageous individual showings. Mundelein's Nathan Sweet, who overcame an illness to win the 800 meters in the North Suburban Conference meet, cut three-tenths of his time off from that win to win in 1:57.1, a second better than the second-place winner.

Chris Horton of Antioch was second in the pole vault at 11-6.

Tyrone Oliver of Stevenson will be looking to duplicate his first-place showing in the 300 meter low hurdles with a 37.5.

Grant, Mundelein have 'fun' at expense of Grayslake nine

Ah, ya can't beat fun at the old ballpark is the phrase baseball announcers have been known to tell weary fans.

And at Grayslake High Friday, fun was on the minds as Grayslake and Mundelein locked horns in the regular season non-conference finale.

"We treated this as a junior varsity game. We knew when we scheduled it that both Mundelein and our conference schedules will be finished. We wanted to give some kids who normally sit on the bench a chance to play," Grayslake Coach Jim Haas said.

But in the end, it was the Mustangs who have the greater degree of fun. Taking advantage of almost every Rams miscue, the Mustangs romped 14-4.

"Our bats exploded. We took the lead and held on," Mundelein Coach Fred Pickett said.

Winning Mundelein pitcher Graham Haas turned in five strong innings before surrendering four runs in the last two innings. Haas allowed the Rams just five hits.

Mundelein missed its first chance to score, but made amends by scoring a second-inning run. The visitors showed a cable TV audience their run production power, scoring 11 times in the next two innings.

The first two runs of the four-run third inning scored on a double by Jim Smith.

Jeff Krebbs then connected on a Jim Newman pitch for a three-run homer which put the visitors ahead 5-0.

Things went from bad to worse for Grayslake while Mundelein continued its powerful punches in the fourth inning. A dozen Mustangs were sent to the plate and before it was over and three Grayslake pitchers later, the Mustangs had an additional seven runs.

Haas started the inning with a single and went all the way to third on a throwing error. Jeff Wheeler then singled him home for a 6-0 lead. Smith's second double brought home two more runs.

Jim Casper then put the game away for good, belting a two-run homer for an 11-0 lead. Krebbs then scored on a ground out.

Grayslake had chances to score in the third and fourth innings but did not capitalize until the fourth. After an error, Timm West belted a Haas pitch over the left-field fence.

The atmosphere was two different two days earlier when the Rams, 9-14 heading into this week's regional, faced Grant. At state was Grayslake's chance for a tie for the Northwest Suburban Conference title. But the Bulldogs, seeking a .500 league finish, halted those effort with an 8-7 win in nine innings.

The winning run was scored on a suicide squeeze.

Steve Pett continued his strong showing in NWSC play, raising his record to 5-1 in league play. He has struck out 40 opponents while walking only seven.

"He has gotten a lot more confidence and the kids have played well behind him," Grant Coach Fritz Kazlauskis said.

The Bulldogs earlier beat Lake Zurich 7-0.

Clutch hitting, pitching gives Carmel 20-win season

It has a nice, clear sound to it no matter what the sport. Twenty wins.

And for Carmel's baseball team, notching the 20th win of the season with a 4-3 win over rival St. Viator was not only a climax to a successful regular season, but the Corsairs rallied to finish at an even 7-7 in the East Suburban Catholic Conference.

"Especially the way we finished at .500. We beat our conference rival for a sweep at their place and they were using their ace," Carmel Coach Joe Pudlo said.

Twenty wins was not a specific goal for the Corsairs when practice started back in March, though. "We talked about what we wanted to do but we never set a number goal. We wanted to take each game as it came and to play well in conference and non-conference and avoid the peaks and valleys," Pudlo said.

The Corsairs had to rally for a three-run seventh inning to win the game played in Arlington Heights.

The Splitt brothers figured in the winning run. Carmel trailed 3-1 in the seventh, and after a one-out single by Marc Ori, Eric Bruksch also singled. Ricky Splitt singled and when the ball got away from the St. Viators' fielder, two runs scored to tie the game at 3-3. Carmel then grabbed the lead when Randy Splitt singled home his brother.

Pst Halverson picked up the win in relief, holding back the hosts for the final two innings. He struck out two batters, including one in the seventh inning.

Carmel outlived St. Viator 9-8. Stahoviak had a triple and another hit in four at-bats and an RBI. Eric Bruksch and Ricky Splitt were two-for-three,

Unsatisfied Pats seek eye state tourney success

Every baseball coach in Lake County wishes he had Stevenson Coach Bob Mackey's dilemma.

"I'm looking for us not to be satisfied," Mackey said after yet another win, a 12-2 pasting of Mundelein.

And the Patriots kept on rolling, knocking off Libertyville 10-2 to win the North Suburban Conference crown.

Earlier, the Patriots received a scare from last place North Chicago as it took eight innings for the Pats to win game one 8-7 before more routinely winning game two 7-2. That Saturday sweep, coupled with a mid-week sweep of Mundelein, gave the Pats an dozen straight wins, 24-4 overall, 14-2 in the NSC before a showdown this week with Libertyville.

Steve Lemke was the winning pitcher in the win over the Mustangs. The hosts had their chances, as they had 10 hits and had a baserunner in every inning. Lemke's performance, his 10th win against two losses, earned praise from Mundelein Coach Fred Pickett.

"He is one of the best pitchers in the NSC. He has excellent control and he mixed it up," Pickett said.

Stevenson played its own brand of "Billy Ball" in the first inning, scoring three runs on no hits. Mundelein starter Rob Porcileus deserved a better fate, but two ground balls which should have been outs turned into errors and both of those runs scored.

With one out, Montgomery Dillow walked, stole second and scored on an error. Jim Neary and Tom McConnell both reached on errors. Neary later stole home on a delayed steal for a 2-0 lead and McConnell then scored on a wild pitch.

A leadoff triple by Dillow, who scored three times for the Patriots, started the third inning. D.J. McCullough then singled him in. McCullough was picked off second but McConnell singled and then scored all the way from first on a single by Pete Neumann. A double by Lemke gave the visitors a 6-0 lead.

Neumann's second RBI of the day, a fifth inning single, scored Neary, who had walked. The lead reached 8-0 an inning later on a single by McCullough, scoring Dillow who reached on an infield hit.

"Basically our pitchers have been doing a good job in the strikeout to walks ratio with each in excess of three-to-one," Mackey said.

Baserunning gamble pays off, Blue Devils eliminate Grant

by STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

When a baseball team is trailing by one run and possibly facing elimination, then it is time to take a gamble.

For Warren, the gamble paid off.

Trailing 5-4 in the seventh inning against Grant Tuesday, Coach Ron Shelton called a double squeeze with his son, Derek, on third base and Dave Davis on second. The play worked to perfection. Davis kept the Bulldogs occupied between second and third just long enough for Shelton to score the tying run after Paul Sanchez had struck out.

From there, it was all Blue Devils as they scored four runs off three Grant pitchers in the eighth inning. The 9-5 victory advanced Warren into the quarterfinal round of the Waukegan West regional against Carmel. The winner of that game advances to the May 28 semi-final round with the title game set for May 31.

"We called a double steal and the play is designed to score the runner from second. We were fortunate that Derek was the runner at first because he held up. Davis did a nice job of keeping the rundown alive," Coach Shelton said.

The season has not been a banner one for Warren, the tournament's seventh seed. The win upped the Blue Devils' mark to 13-12. But Warren produced when it had to in a cold and windy day at Gurnee American Legion Field.

"It was a great comeback. These kids just don't quit," Shelton said.

The Blue Devils scored their first run of the seventh inning when Alan Crouch reached on an infield hit. Shelton singled and Davis' RBI single brought home Crouch.

A relatively unknown junior John Springer picked up the win for Warren after pitching for five innings.

"I was debating whether to start White (Aaron) or Springer. I started White, but I was real unhappy with the way he was pitching. After he gave up a home run to their No. 7 hitter (Rick Stratford), I asked Derek if he had anything and he said no," Shelton said.

The loss was especially disappointing for Coach Fritz Kazlauskis' team, who entered the seventh inning with starter Jeff Pett throwing well and holding onto a two-run lead. They were three outs away from the win.

But after Warren forced extra innings, the Blue Devils quickly settled the issue in the eighth.

Springer ledoff with a double, advanced to third on a wild pitch and scored the game-winning run on a sacrifice fly hit by Paul Kucharski. Mark Graham, who had walked and stole second, also scored on the play on an error for a 7-5 lead.

Brent Howard was hit by a pitch, advanced to second on a Crouch single and scored on another Grant miscue. The final run was scored by Shelton on a double by Davis.

Grant, the home team, led 3-0 in the early going. Three singles produced a first-inning run. Stratford then blasted a two-run homer to left in the second inning for a 3-0 lead.

After Warren tied it at 3-3, Grant scored on a RBI single by Misiek in the fourth and a RBI single by Butch Gorski in the sixth.

But that was before Warren's gamble.

Elsewhere in Waukegan West regional games, Mundelein also rallied for a 13-10 win over Grayslake. The win advanced the Mustangs to the quarterfinal round against Zion-Benton.

Bears, JHS, Wauconda all eliminated

Lake Zurich, Wauconda and Johnsbury were all first-round losers in regional play Tuesday.

For the Bears and the Bulldogs, the losses were in tight pitchers duels. Lake Zurich fell to Streamwood 2-0 while Wauconda was blanked by Elgin Larkin 1-0 in Dundee-Crown regional games. At Rockford, Johnsbury fell to Rockford West 6-3.

Streamwood pitcher Bruce Kielbasa was the winning pitcher for the Sabres as he held the Bears to just two hits. He fanned nine Lake Zurich batters.

Troy Ong did his best to keep the Bears in the game, allowing only three Streamwood hits. A sacrifice fly scored Streamwood's first run.

Lake Zurich ended the season with an 11-13 mark.

Buksa wins tennis meet

Tennis players in the Lakeland Newspapers-Coca Cola-Penn tennis series are taking Memorial Day weekend off in preparation for the upcoming Vernon Hills tournament.

Dave Buksa notched the first championship of the summer-long series with a dramatic three-set win over Fred Acosta. Buksa won the Gunree tournament with a 6-2, 4-6, 6-4 triumph.

Buksa dominated early and led 5-1 at one point in the second set. But Acosta rallied to win the set and force a third and deciding set.

Buksa made it to the finals after beating back a strong surge by Stu Short. Buksa won the first set 6-1, fell 6-4 in the second and won the third 7-6 on a tiebreak.

Buksa is an automatic qualifier for the championship series at Mundelein in August. Acosta earned two points as did Stu Short and Mike Nichols.

Don't fall into the term insurance trap

by CONRAD MEIER

You should know...that consumers who try to buy new term insurance every couple of years (and insurance agents that recommend it) are in for a rude awakening.

Those frequent replacements are part of an individual's "insurance file" and can follow you around like a bad driving record.

More and more, companies are not willing and cannot afford to go to the expense of writing coverage on an individual who is likely to cancel in a couple of years.

In addition to having to satisfy certain new "waiting" periods (such as the suicide clause) each time a policy is churned over, people may find themselves stuck with a policy that no longer fits their needs and lifestyle and is not currently competitive.

Also, they may not be able to get the new coverage based on the previous cancellation record or a new substandard health condition.

To avoid this trap, people should shop around. Newer "level premium term plans" do not increase rates with every birthday.

A current 10-year R/C plan offers very competitive rates and premium guarantees.

For the individual who stays with the policy, "level term" offers better rates than the most competitive "yearly renewable rate" plans. We thought you should know.

WHAT IS 4-WHEEL ALIGNMENT?

Every car, rear wheel or front wheel drive, has an imaginary centerline. All four wheels must be parallel to this line for proper handling and tire wear. When either the front or rear wheels are not parallel you will have poor handling performance, increased wear on suspension parts and tires!

DO YOU NEED IT?

You should have a periodic alignment check to find out.

Lakes Historical Society elects Kuechenmeister

Now that spring has arrived, the Lakes Region Historical Museum in Antioch has been dressed-up. On display are artifacts and information about the area's Indian heritage.

The newly refurbished display case is in the lobby of the museum filled with items recalling Antioch's early commercial ventures. To celebrate the season, some prom clothes of earlier eras and graduation memorabilia are on display.

There was an election of the Board of the Lakes Region Historical Society at the board's last meeting. New officers are President Lucille Kuechenmeister, Vice President Janet Brook, Rec. Sec. Barbara Beese, Corr. Sec. Al Little and Treas. Ted Sokulski.

Antioch's economic developer, Don Davis, has agreed to chair the fundraising committee needed to raise money to insure continued operation of the museum. Working with him will be Bill Brook and Rev. Strang.

The present bank balance is $1,700 in uncommitted funds. Expenses to run the museum are approximately $250 per month.

The security door in the South Room of the museum was installed as a result of contributions in memory of Art Doty's father. Contributions in memory of Ed Strang have made it possible to refurbish the bird display and place it in the South Room.

On May 21, the museum held a display of photos from Antioch's past and present with Jim Merrick doing the black and white work on the old photos. The display was made-up of refurbished old black and white pictures of sites in the village, new colored pictures showing how those same sites look today were placed along side.

The next meeting of the historical society was expected to be held on Thursday, May 26 with Ralph Teich set to talk about early Antioch and the postcard business.

Top cop's job open again

As promised when he was made Silver Lake's acting police chief, Martin Bilecki, retired Chicago police officer, has given the Silver Lake Board his resignation from the top cop's job before the busy summer gets underway.

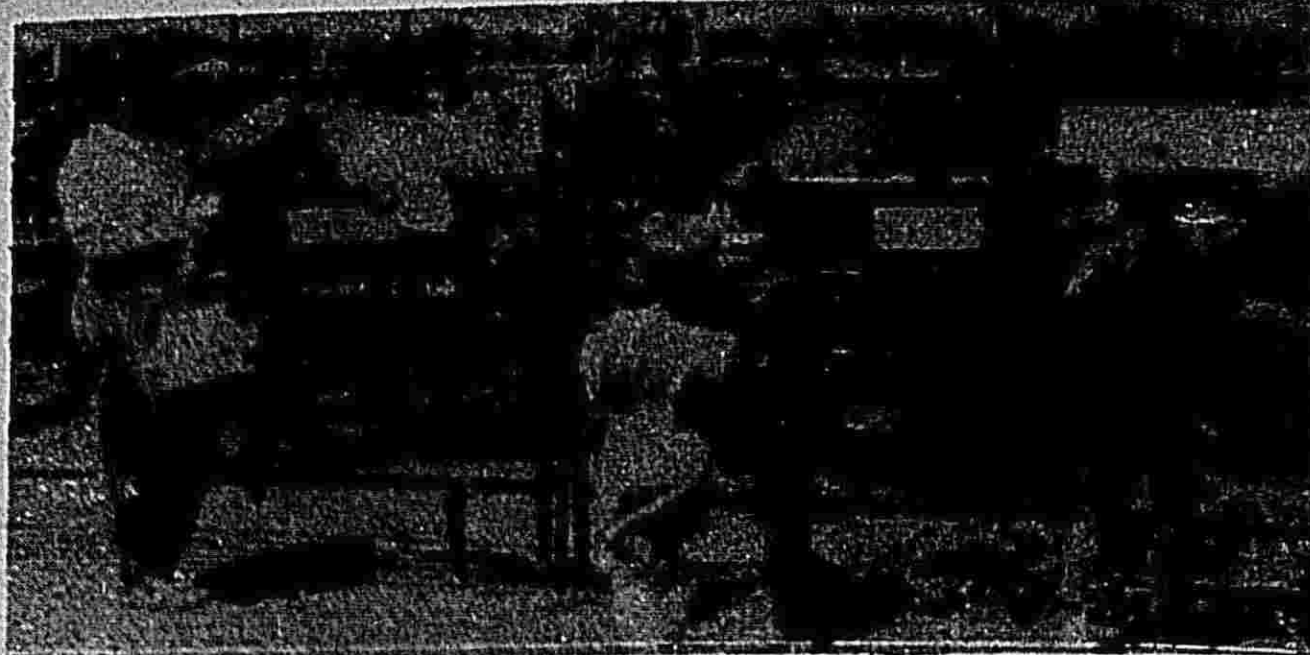

The Silver Lake Board was very satisfied with Bilecki's performance but now they are back looking for a new police chief, salary $25,000 per year.

Bilecki requested to remain on the police department as a part time officer.

Historical display

Mrs. Mel Knirsch, sets up display of 'then-now' photographs at Lakes Region Historical Society, Antioch. Display was funded by Ill. Arts Council grant. Old sites in Antioch are framed and displayed with new colored picture of same site in 1988. The photographic work was done by James R. Mirek. Photos include the old Williams home on Main St. now the heritage Bldg.; the Wis. Central Train Station, now site for industrial warehouses and old King's Drug Store (previously Overton's Pharmacy) now E and E Electronics and computer store. — Photo by Gloria Davis.

DOCTOR'S FORUM

by Dr. Mark Bowman
TENNIS ELBOW

During the summer months, one of the more popular sporting activities is tennis. Along with this sport, a condition called tennis elbow may develop.

The term tennis elbow is a catchall phrase and is better labeled as overload syndrome, since the injury may occur from playing any sport which requires forceful use of the forearm muscles (golf, bowling, etc.)

Elbow overload syndrome is not the only injury which may occur at the joint. Other injuries, commonly associated with sporting activities, must be differentiated from elbow overload.

The basic problem with overload syndrome is that the shock-absorbing functions of the elbow musculature is overloaded. This results in small tears called microtraumas, which lead to acute pain and are noticed shortly after a particular activity. The patient usually notices pain over the lateral part of the elbow joint.

Who gets this kind of injury? A young, well-conditioned athlete who plays regularly may suffer an overload injury, but the problem is most common among underconditioned players, usually over age 35, who play occasionally, but aggressively. In this athlete, the force imposed on the generally weaker extensor muscle group cannot be readily absorbed.

Treatment possibilities for elbow overload include pain medications, ice, as well as proper stretching and exercise techniques. Occasionally, a local injection with specific medication may be required, depending upon patient response and doctor evaluation.

Pre-game warm up must be stressed. Racquet sport players may find that a forearm band helps reduce sliding of the extensor muscles over the painful area. For the older player with osteoarthritis, local treatment may be attempted, but it may simply come to the point that new sport, such as swimming or cycling, will be required to preclude undue stress to the elbow joint.

For more information about elbow overload, or other sports-related injuries, please call or make an appointment with the Heritage Medical Center, 312/395-0085.

New honor member

Nine seniors and four juniors have been honored for their academic excellence by being inducted into the Lake Forest Academy-Ferry Hall chapter of the Cum Laude Society.

Each year not more than 20 percent of the graduation class is elected to this distinguished society in recognition of high academic standing, character, honor, and integrity. Up to 10 percent of the junior class is also eligible for election at the end of the junior year.

Among Academy juniors elected is Peter Han of Lindenhurst. The Cum Laude Society, which was modeled after Phi Beta Kappa, was formed in 1906 to honor secondary school students for academic excellence.

Eat hearty at lunch, trim travel expenses

by COLONEL BILL RADKE

Memorial Day, Monday, May 30, is our first long weekend for summer outdoor travel. It's estimated, over 80 percent of all summer vacations will be by personal vehicle. The U.S. Travel Data Center projects, half of these will involve round trips of less than 500 miles. Trends for travel are more trips but lesser mileage. This weekend will be the beginning of our summer get-aways.

With growing vacation frequency, says AAA Chicago Motor Club, travel costs have increased about 8 percent over last year, due to higher prices for meals and lodgings. A family of four, they say, can expect to spend $90 per day for meals, $80 for lodgings, plus 7.5 cents per mile for fuel, based on 300 miles daily. Family expenses may come to $192 per day. They advise carrying minimum cash and relying more heavily on credit cards, traveler's and personal checks.

Other money saving travel tips include making lunch the big meal. Usually several more dollars are charged for the same meal on evening menus. Restaurants with children's menus and early bird specials are more economical. Hotels and motels frequently offer free or low cost rates for children, but an inquiry is needed. During the past 10 years, says AAA, lodging costs have doubled, meals slightly more than doubled, but car mileage costs are close to the same, based on lighter vehicles and more efficient engines.

For a short trip outdoors, the Brookfield Zoo is opening a new seascape to host the marine mammals that compliment the million gallon Seven Seas Panorama. It's the newest segment of the Zoo's 2200 animal population, spread over 204 acres of buildings, plantings and natural woodlands. The Zoo opens at 9:30 a.m. during the summer months. Admission is $2.25 and 75 cents for children and seniors over 64. Parking is plentiful at $2 per car.

On the water travelers are reminded, June 5-11 is Safe Boating Week. Illinois registered 296,000 pleasure crafts last year. "Know Before You Go" is this year's theme. It's easier to prevent a problem than get out of one.

For the outdoor gardner and those appreciative of flower design, a new International Festival of Flowers and Gardens opens at Navy Pier in Chicago, May 27 to June 5. Tickets are $5 and children 6-12, $2. Show opens at 11 a.m. weekends and noon on weekdays.

For a little longer drive to the Wisconsin Dells, the weekend of June 4-5 will present a floating kaliedoscope of color during their 13th Annual Hot Air Balloon Rally with mass ascensions on the two days slated for 6 a.m., plus a 6 p.m. Saturday flight. We have attended several of these and find them interesting and colorful.

Crime Stoppers and the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. are seeking information on a burglary, which occurred at Stevenson High School, sometime between Saturday, April 30 and Sunday, May 1.

Person or persons forcibly entered a science classroom by breaking the small glass window above a door knob and reaching in to unlock the door.

The offender or offenders then removed a total of 13 scales, six electric and seven balance type. Value of the scales is placed at approximately $10,000 dollars.

Persons with any information about this crime or any other felony crime or felony fugitive, contact Crime Stoppers at (312)662-2222.

Crime Stoppers along with the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. and Hawthorn Woods Police Dept. are seeking information on a home invasion and burglary, which occurred at No. 5 Oneida Lane, Hawthorn Woods, on April 30 at approximately 3:08 a.m.

The offender was described as a male, white, 20 years of age, five foot nine inches in height, 170 lbs., having blond hair.

The intruder was confronted by the homeowner, who at that time threatened the homeowner with the use of a gun, however, a weapon was never displayed. The offender then existed the residence by running through the garage. Taken was approximately, $2,000 worth of jewelry.

Persons with information about this crime or any other felony crime or felony fugitive, should contact Crime Stoppers at (312)662-2222.

Maui's quiet side

by JIM WARNKEN

PRESIDENT, NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

If you want to party all night and shop all day, Kaanapali on the island of Maui is the place for you. Want to escape all of that? You're still on the right island. Just take the road to Hana.

A short review. Maui is one of the five major islands of the state of Hawaii. It is shaped like a lop-sided butterfly. Most of the action is on the small wing of this butterfly, which is the west side of the island. Looking for hidden beaches and unspoiled beauty? Head east towards Hana.

56 one-lane bridges, hundreds of hairpin turns and about three hours later you'll find the town Charles Lindbergh once called the most beautiful place on earth. In fact, Lindbergh chose this place to spend his last days on earth. He is buried nearby.

In 1795, the town of Hana boasted a population of over 3,000 and was the launching site for King Kamehameha's conquest of the islands. Now you will find less than 1,000 villagers who can trace their origins back to the first Polynesians to land on the Hawaiian Islands.

Hana is on the "rainy side" of the island. But the reward for giving up an hour of sunshine to an occasional afternoon shower is an array of exotic flowers, lush green foliage and breathtaking waterfalls.

One particularly interesting waterfall is called the Seven Sacred Pools. As the name implies, there are seven pools in a series of waterfalls. You can swim in the pools and dive from one to the next.

Directions to a hidden beach? There is an unmarked path between the community center and a Japanese cemetery, which takes you past green pastures and along the rocky coastline before ending at a volcanic sand beach. Here you'll find a bowl-shaped swimming hole carved out of the red cliffs by the ocean. It is well protected and ideal for a relaxing swim before the hike back.

Less remote is Hana Beach. It was once described by James Michener as the choicest in all the Pacific. It is maintained by the Hotel Hana, but is open to the public.

On your visit to Maui, a day trip to Hana is a must. Better yet, make arrangements to spend the night.

Music fest

On Saturday, May 14, the Bristol Grade School Music Dept. hosted a music fest. Five clinicians were hired to work with the young musicians at Bristol School. They were: Dr. James Grine, UW Oshkosh; Geraldine Grine, Oshkosh; Albert Asch, UW Washington Center; George Staerkel, Kenosha and Laura Asch Staerkel, Kenosha. The day concluded with a short recital by clinicians and outstanding student performances of the day.

Two tests in school next fall

Lake Villa schools will have a new test for students starting next fall. It is due to a state testing mandate.

In past years the school system, like many others throughout the state, used the Iowa Test of Basic Skills to test students. In recent years the state changed its standards and the Iowa general knowledge test will no longer provide statistical information the school district needs to meet the state mandate.

School officials are looking at what is called the California Achievement Test as a possible replacement. Starting next fall three sections of each grade will take the Iowa test and three will take the California test. A comparison will be made before deciding which test to ultimately use in the district's three schools.

All students are tested annually in grades three through eight, said Supt. Peter Palombi. "We want to make certain that we are teaching what we are testing for," he said about the two tests.

Sidewalk sale

This year's Sidewalk Sale Days sponsored by the Lindenhurst Chamber of Commerce will be Friday, July 24, through Sunday, July 26. The sponsors promise even more bargains and events than last year's successful sale.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

FROM THE OFFICE OF
DR. PAUL ABLER

DIABETIC NEUROPATHY

Diabetics may experience a loss of sensation in the feet if nerves are affected by poor circulation. The condition is called diabetic neuropathy.

This inability to feel pain, heat or cold leaves the diabetic vulnerable to serious injury or disease.

Failure to feel a cut or a blister can allow an infection to develop and intensify undetected. Even ulcers and gangrene can develop without a feeling of pain, which can mean that appropriate care will be delayed until too late.

Daily examination of the feet by the diabetic individual or a family member is a must once there is sensation loss.

Early visual detection of unfelt foot problems and prompt care by a podiatrist may make a difference in saving a foot or even a life.

24 HOUR ANSWERING SERVICE

When was the last time you had a complete physical?

Osteopathic exam special: $69

A thorough physical examination by a doctor of osteopathy (DO) can detect medical problems which you may not be aware of.

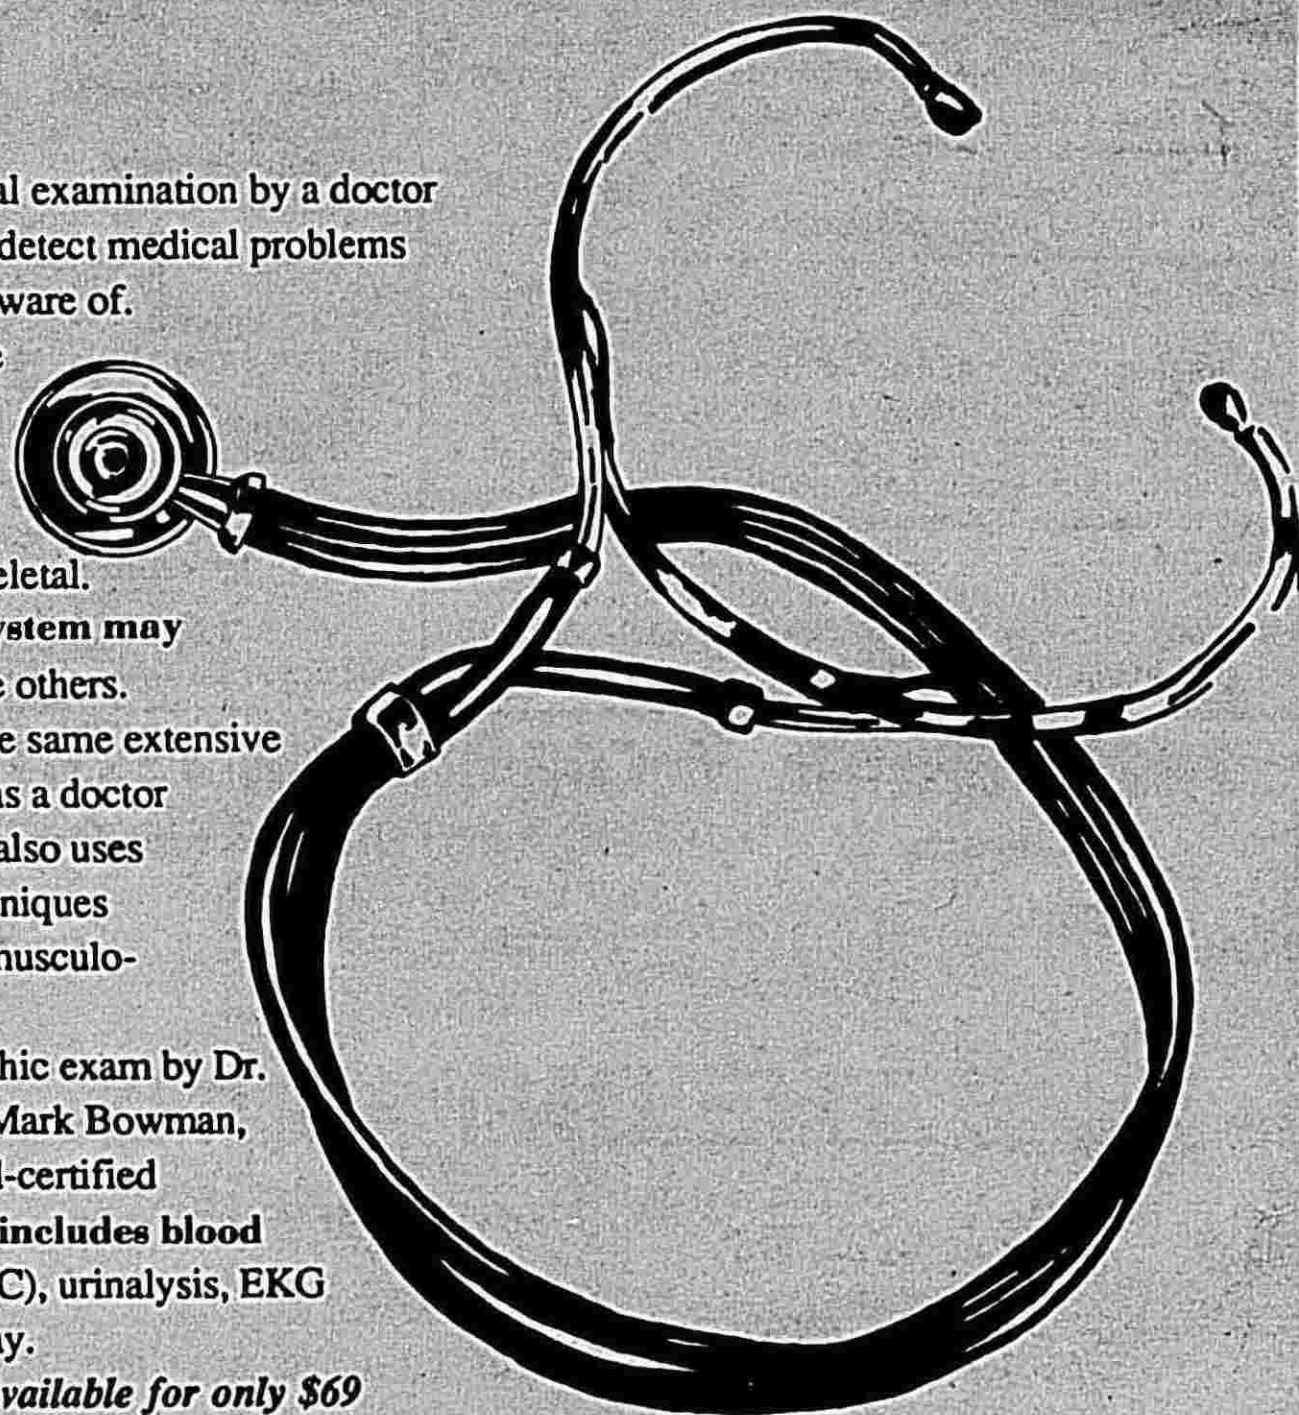

Osteopathic medicine involves the study of all the body's systems—circulatory, respiratory, nervous and musculoskeletal.

A problem with one system may cause problems with the others.

The DO possesses the same extensive education and training as a doctor of medicine (MD), but also uses body manipulation techniques to examine the body's musculoskeletal system.

A complete osteopathic exam by Dr. Chris Bowman or Dr. Mark Bowman, brothers who are Board-certified family practitioners, includes blood tests (SMA-24 and CBC), urinalysis, EKG and optional chest X-ray.

The exam is now available for only $69 (a $200 value). Offer good for initial visit only. Please call one of the numbers below to schedule an appointment.

Why does IBM recommend Manpower for end-user training on its System/36 and its new 9370 computer?

Because MANPOWER has a nationwide network of 700 offices with training facilities and staff to support DisplayWrite 370 and PROFS.

Because MANPOWER has perfected a unique disk-based training technique that trains quickly—comfortably—and effectively. It's friendly to users because it was designed by users.

Because MANPOWER has trained its own pool of temporary office workers, successfully, on System/36, System 9370, 5520, all popular PC software programs and 9 brands of stand-alone word processors.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly Tip: Help keep the peace.
Aries (Mar. 21-Apr 19) Aggressiveness will open doors now. See those who count, as well as those who don't. Find time to enjoy recreations. A friend may give a helpful tip.
Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) High spirits and abundant energy set your ambitions in motion. Let your instincts guide you for favorable results. Be lavish with praise when deserved.
Gemini (May 21-June 20) Make no hazardous speculations or enter games of chance. Concentrate on what you really want. Choices will have to be made now. Be prepared.
Cancer (June 21-Jul 20) Put your thoughts into action. You get plenty of support from family, advisers and friends. It's a good time to find bargains and get the most you can.
Leo (Jul 21-Aug. 22) A production period due to your high energy level is coming full circle, but keep spirits up. New friends may be added to your life. Entertain and enjoy.
Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Devote time and energy to your dear, and not so dear, friends. Activities swirl around you, but don't lose sight of what you have been working hard for.
Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Social trends are on the upswing. Be kind and considerate to others. Your foresight will help you reach the right decisions. Keep your mind open.
Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Don't follow the crowd. Do your own thinking since success depends on your best judgment. Your patience may be repeatedly tested: show your stamina.
Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) You may need a boost from someone in a position of prominence. Put your thoughts into action. You have high hopes and aspirations to uphold.
Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Those you trust will help you make financial gains now. Don't become impatient or reckless when dealing with elders. Keep your mind relaxed.
Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Make yourself heard. You have fine things to say and others are interested. You have high aims and a great chance at reaching them. Keep your focus.
Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Get all the facts straight before chastising someone. It's important to keep the home environment carefree and happy. Don't get bogged down now.

If you were born this week, you are the active sort and are often hard to keep track of. Unfortunately, this carries over into your business and personal lives wherein it is often hard to get a straight answer or decision out of you. Since you don't like this approach and are now aware of it, use this energy to your advantage.
